Stumps said that he really didn't remember that day back in 1955 on which the PAC claims he played basketball. "I never even heard of the sport until I came here almost three years ago," commented Stumps. "I guess the only fair thing for me to do would be to quit the team and give up basketball forever. After all, there's no room in this sport for cheaters," he said.

Coach Darrin Stinko was very much upset over the entire incident. "They can't do this to me. They just can't come along and take away the best record my team has had in the last twenty years. It just isn't fair," he said as a tear rolled down his left cheek.

"If I had known this type of thing was going on in my department, I would have verbally browbeaten the guilty people," stated Eddie Funnyman, director of athletics. "I feel like a little sheep that has lost his Bo-Peep," com-

Tinkers, Mometer and Chance pro softball team, still need pitcher a

"Our baseball team looks just swell for this coming season," said the Pussy Cats' baseball coach Flowery Tenniscourt. The team looks strongest in the infield where four out of the five players who came out for the team will be playing. "If we are lucky, we might even be able to find an outfielder who owns his own mit," stated Tenniscourt.

The Cats' newest and most outstanding player is Arthur Mometer, a recent flunk-out from one of the better colleges in the East. Mometer will probably be starting at second base. "He plays the position well considering he has only one leg," said Tenniscourt. Mometer has a good arm and good aim on his throws from second and although he can't run too fast, he hops very well.

Back from last year's loosening team will be Albert Tinkers and Craig Chance. Tinkers will be starting at shortstop this year provided he can bring his grades up. Chance, the powerful lefthander from the South, will be playing first base.

Tenniscourt is very anxious to see how the three will play together. "They look good during practice—when they practice—especially at the double play," commented Tenniscourt. The double play team of Tinkers to Mometer to Chance should be a if not the only, highlight of this year's team.

The team may have some problem hitting since only one of the five boys has learned to hold a bat. "The rest are coming along nicely,"

Film Society asks for new applicants

The WRU Film Society has additional openings on its Coordinating Committee and invites applications, especially from undergraduates. The Coordinating Committee, which includes representation from undergraduate and graduate students, administration and faculty, is responsible for selection of films for the Film Society series as well as arranging for speakers and provision of program notes.

Application forms are available at the Hospitality Desk of the Student Union or from Dr. Leonard Pearson, chairman of the Film Society, whose office is in the Psychology building on Ford Drive.

Golfers defeat Bethany, 15-9

By Steve Seelig

The Reserve golf team beat Bethany on Bethany's Highland Springs Tuesday. Coach Lewis emphasized that the scores were very high for two reasons: first the weather conditions were terrible with a low temperature of 45°, rain, and wind; and secondly the course was in terrible shape. Yet even with these problems, Reserve managed to come out on top 15-9. Normally a very beautiful golf course, this year because of vandals the grass had not been cut. As a result the fairway grass was about three to four inches deep; the rough was really rough with seven to eight inches of grass; and on top of this the greens were shaggy.

For Reserve Jake Arnold, the team captain, had an 86 to earn two points. For the other members of the team: Gary Forsberg — 91 for one half point, Tim Meehan, a freshman who has put in two excellent performances so far — 83 for all four possible points, Dale Cadwallader — 85 for all four points, Gary Palmer — 86 for one point, and Henry Zawada — 92 for three and one-half points.

A point of interest is that Bethany beat Washington and Jefferson who were conference champs last year. Coach Lewis said "The golf team is a more solid team than any in the last," and with the scores so low and so close together the Reserve team is going to be tough to beat this year.

Buchwald to speak May 6

A lecture by Art Buchwald, noted political satirist, will crown the events of May Weekend, May 5-6.

Buchwald, whom Walter Lippman calls "one of the best satirists of our time," will speak at 2:30 on Saturday, May 6, in Amasa Stone Chapel. The traditional Hudson Relays, the May Queen Crowning, honors chapels, a Parents' Day Program, canoe-tilts, and a student-faculty softball game constitute the remainder of the weekend's festivities.

Following the crowning of the May Queen on Friday evening, Omicron Delta Kappa and Mortar Board, the senior class honorary societies, will tap new members.

On Saturday morning, parents will assemble in Hatch Auditorium to witness the naming of the Carl F. Witte Distinguished Teacher. Dr. Mark Chamberlain, vice-president for student services, will speak.

Following Buchwald's talk, the WRU Student Union will formally celebrate its tenth anniversary with a reception and coffee hour beginning at 4 p.m. sidelined for several weeks with a broken jaw sustained in the course of extracurricular activities. The sophomore, already a four time letter winner, decided to run at Allegheny, and though a little out of shape from his long layoff, grabbed two third places in the hurdles. Ray's return should give the ailing track team a big lift in the point department.

A "Get Well" poster for Eddie Finnegan will be at the Hospitality Desk of the Student Union beginning Monday. I urge all students and particularly varsity athletes to sign. Mr. Finnegan has always been deeply concerned with the welfare of his men; I'm positive it would be heartening for him to know that that concern is mutual.

Seven members of the WRU varsity soccer squad journey to Boardman High School in Youngstown Saturday to compete in an invitational soccer tournament. Representing the Red Cats at the indoor tourney will be John Bartnik, Pete Dorfman, Gioia Digiannantonio, Alan Lerner, Rick Krohn, Jamis Zandsberg, and Frank Malijko. Indoor soccer, due to the size of the playing area allows only seven men on a team instead of the usual eleven. Other schools competing will be: Akron, Ohio Wesleyan, Youngstown, Bowling Green, Kent State, Toledo.

Hal Boesger is teetering on the brink of middle age. He is frequently short of breath after bounding up the steps to the student union. Yet Hal still plays singles for the undefeated tennis team. Asked how he does it, Hal answered, "With Mirrors."

Tennis team wins again for four in a row

Tuesday the Reserve tennis team stretched its winning streak to four games with its 7-2 victory over Hiram.

Bob Choy, WRU's number one player, got off to a slow start and lost his first set 4-6, but he bounced back in the next two sets and won 6-1, 6-2.

Hal Boesger, our number two player, had no trouble handling his opponent; he won both sets 6-0, 6-0.

Al Goodwin's opponent found Al's slicing serve impossible to re-
